

Introduction to Volunteering in the Hills Shire

Wednesday May 19, 9.30am to 1pm

This free half day workshop will cover the topics that you most want to know about volunteering.

You may have questions such as:

- Where do I start?
- Where can I volunteer?
- What do I need to do?
- How much time am I expected to give?
- What is involved in volunteering?
- What are my responsibilities?
- Is it OK to say 'no'?
- What's in it for me?

GET ANSWERS !!

- ✓ Come to this half day workshop
- ✓ Meet others who want to volunteer
- ✓ Get yourself ready to contribute to your community
- ✓ Most of all – have fun while you are learning and networking

This workshop will be facilitated by Ute Cowley who has been training Volunteers in Baulkham Hills Shire since 1991.

Where: Learning in the Hills, Balcombe Heights Community Buildings, 92 Seven Hills Road, (opposite Jasper Rd Public School), Baulkham Hills.

To make a booking contact:

The Hills Community Aid and Information Service Inc.
on 9639 8620 or enq@hca.org.au

This program is organised by
The Hills Community Aid and Information Service Inc.

Funded by:  NSW Government Community Services
 The Hills Shire Council